(e) If you did not appeal to the highest state court having jurisdiction, explain why you did not:

12. For this petition, state every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the Constitution, laws, or treaties of the United States. Attach additional pages if you have more than four grounds. State the facts supporting each ground. Any legal arguments must be submitted in a separate memorandum.

CAUTION: To proceed in the federal court, you must ordinarily first exhaust (use up) your available state-court remedies on each ground on which you request action by the federal court. Also, if you fail to set forth all the grounds in this petition, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds at a later date.

GROUND ONE: Violation of due process of law in violation of the 14th Amendment

(a) Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

The Petitioner is held as a civil commitment in a maximum security prison without being charged with a crime,

He is denied his right to due process of law by the State holding him indefinitely in a maximum security prison.

He is not being treated by an accredited hospital for his mental illness and in fact his treatment is harmful and cruel and violates the American's with Disability Act. He has been assigned a prisoner number without being convicted of a crime.

(b) If you did not exhaust your state remedies on Ground One, explain why: The Petitioner was committed and needs mental health care not imprisonment. There is no alternative in the State of New Hampshire for those needing secure care.

AO 241 (Rev. 09/17)

(c) Direct Appeal of Ground One:(1) If you appealed from the judgment of conviction, did you raise this issue? ☐ Yes ☐ No(2) If you did not raise this issue in your direct appeal, explain why: There is no conviction.(d) Post-Conviction Proceedings:

(e) Other Remedies: Describe any other procedures (such as habeas corpus, administrative remedies, etc.) that you have used to exhaust your state remedies on Ground One: _____

GROUND TWO: Violation of American's with Disabilities Act, Imprisonment rather than hospitalization

(a) Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

The State of New Hampshire has failed to provide accredited mental health care for the Petitioner.

The Petitioner is held in a maximum security state prison. He is held in solitary confinement 23 hours a day.

His own clothing has been taken. He must wear prison garb identifying him as mental health detainee.

He has been tasered. He has been denied contact visits with his father and attorney. He is guarded by correction officers rather than cared for by mental health workers. There is a group of cages used to hold detainees falsely labelled as "treatment booths". The petitioner is incarcerated rather than hospitalized under color of law by the State of New Hampshire.

(d) Have you filed, or do you plan to file, any petition that challenges the judgment or sentence to be served in the future? ☐ Yes ☐ No

18. TIMELINESS OF PETITION: If your judgment of conviction became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.*

There is no conviction and no criminal process pending.

(1) A one-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of -

- (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;
- (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such state action;
- (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
- (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

AO 241 (Rev. 09/17)

- (2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

Therefore, petitioner asks that the Court grant the following relief: that the Petitioner be released from the New State Prison for Men Special Psychiatric Unit and transferred to an accredited specialized mental health hospital.

or any other relief to which petitioner may be entitled.
